

Employment History:

Sumitomo Mitsui Finance & Leasing, New York, NY (October 2016 - Present)
Equipment Finance - Construction, Transportation, Machine Tools - Business Development Group

Management of Wholesale Equipment Finance Projects

- Organizing wholesale projects from start to finish, including customer credit analysis, communication interfacing, documentation, and funding.

Management of Retail Equipment Finance Deals

- Supporting sales managers with credit analysis, compliance reports on customers (KYC), and documentation.

NTT Communications, Tokyo, Japan (October 2014 - October 2016)

Cloud Management: Data Center Services - Global Business Development & Product Management

Analyzing viability of new projects

- Evaluating business plans (pipelines, expenses, cash flows), for new investments in the data center market, including company acquisitions, construction projects, and franchises.

Standardizing data center specifications & contract schemes

- Managing and maintaining an appropriate balance between localization and global standardization for over 140 locations which NTT provides data center services.

Shogun's Gallery, Portland, Oregon (May 2011 - August 2014)

Japanese and Chinese antique imports - Sales Representative

- Researching, photographing, describing, and shipping Japanese antiques, while handling communication with customers throughout the process.

Education:

Oregon State University (2015 - Present)

- Bachelor of Science in Computer Science (Ongoing)
- Coursework thus far includes C++, UNIX/LINUX, Discrete Structures, and Data Structures

Portland State University (Graduated March 2014)

- Bachelor of Arts in World Language: Chinese

Skills:

Programming Tools:

- C++ (primary)
- SQL
- Python
- UNIX/LINUX/Bash

Language Skills:

- Japanese (JLPT N1, as of July 2015), Chinese (Conversational)